MISSION STATEMENT:

TO MAKE DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST THROUGH WORD AND SACRAMENT BY THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Greetings Lutherans,

498 years ago, on the eve of All Saints' Day (a day we know as Halloween), October 31, 1517, a young Roman Catholic Priest by the name of Martin Luther posted on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany, a list of 95 theses, or statements, and requested a meeting of the church leaders to discuss and debate the substance of these 95 theses.

At the time, Martin Luther had no idea what drastic changes this simple act would bring upon the church, but posting those 95 Theses began a chain reaction that resulted in the events that we know today as the Protestant Reformation. We Lutherans celebrate and observe this last Sunday in October as Reformation Sunday, the birthday of the Lutheran Church.

As a young man, Luther decided early on that he did not want to spend all of eternity in hell and suffering, so he set out to make himself right and pleasing before God:

- He left a promising future in law school
- And took on the disciplines of becoming an Augustinian monk.
- He continued his schooling and was ordained as a priest in the Church.
- Later, he earned his Ph.D. in Bible and Theology.
- And eventually he became a professor at the University of Wittenberg in Germany, one of the new and upcoming schools of the Church.

But through all of this, Luther did not find what he wanted the most, what he longed for and searched for: peace with God and a sense of assurance and rest for his troubled spirit. One day as Luther was preparing for a series of lectures on Paul's letter to the Romans, he was reading and studying chapter 3, a portion of Scripture that he had surely read many times before. But this time as he read it, his eyes were opened, the light came on! As Luther describes it, "It was as though the gates of heaven were opened to me!"

Romans 3:22-24: "But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed...since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; they are now justified (put right with God) by God's grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.... For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law."

Suddenly Luther knew the truth of the Gospel, and suddenly Luther was set free! He was set free from trying to make himself worthy and acceptable before God, something he could never achieve for himself, no matter how hard he tried. He was free to simply rest in the grace and favor and love of God, grace and forgiveness freely given to us because of what Jesus Christ accomplished for us on the cross of Calvary.

This year we celebrate the Reformation on Sunday, October 25, at the worship service. We will affirm what the Gospel tells us and what Luther rediscovered: "We are saved by grace through faith." COME - join us as for this special Sunday in our church year and in our congregation. Celebrate with us the Reformation and our ministry in the Lutheran Church at St. James. Pastor Jim

What is WELCA? It's an easy way to say "WOMEN of the EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH in AMERICA" Quite a mouthful, I know. St James organization includes women who gather in 7,000 locations all over the U.S. and the Caribbean. Women come together for service, study, advocacy, fellowship, and much more. WELCA embraces all kinds of ministries that support our mission of mobilizing women to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ.

St James women will provide for the congregation a small Christmas tree to fill with new gloves and hats. We need all of your help during the month of October and November. Winter will be here soon. Give from your heart, to some one who has no hat or gloves. Share your blessings and show your love.

November 22 St James will celebrate our yearly 'THANKS' service. Women of this congregation will do parts of the morning worship service while the men sit and listen. Sounds like a good idea. Bring a friend, relative or a neighbor.

Immediately after church a catered LUNCH will be provided by WELCA of St James congregation. Come and join us for a day of "THANKS".

So.....St James women... join us and mark your calendar for next meeting:

October 10th, 9am

Almighty God, giver of every good gift; look upon this congregation with grace. Guide the minds of our Call Committee members as they discern which of your servants will be our next pastor. Please grant that we might receive a faithful shepherd who will care for us and continue to equip us for ministry in this place. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Companions in Christ's Mission with the Kenya Evangelical Lutheran Church

Dear Friends,

Grace and Peace to you in the name of God our Father and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. On this the first anniversary of serving with you as Bishop of our Allegheny Synod, I share with you the exciting ministry opportunities we have worked on together as well as the challenges that lie before us.

The blessing of serving as Bishop is that I get to meet all of you: joining you for worship, visiting with your Councils, and seeing you at events in and around our Synod. What I have learned in this last year is that we are a Synod of wonderful people. I get to see firsthand that our congregations are full of good people who love Jesus and want to serve him. Even in places that may find themselves in times of struggle (since our Synod Office works with our sisters and brothers in conflict), we find people who really want what is best. I thank God for all of you, and the many ways you serve Jesus in your congregations and the way you reach out to your community.

We are in this together, and as we work together, we are able to do so much more than we ever will apart. During this past year, we as a Synod have done remarkable things from the 25,000 Can Challenge in December and January that together we gathered over 36,000 items of food to care for our sisters and brothers in need in our local communities. In April and May we had the Kenya Motorbike Challenge to help purchase motorbikes for our companion synod in Kenya. Our goal was one bike at $5,000. Together we raised over $12,500 and look to be close to $15,000 for three bikes! These funds make it possible for pastors to reach their more remote churches and take the gospel to places that are hard to reach. When the Allegheny Synod works together we do amazing things.

We have also seen the Spirit at work in our Synod in this last year sending us new leaders and opening people's hearts to consider the ministry. The Lord has sent us nine new leaders to our Synod in this past year. Five of these were newly ordained pastors, two were pastors new to our Synod, and two were pastors who were returning to our Synod. We thank God for them.

The more amazing thing the Spirit has done is in forming new leaders. When I began in our Synod office we had two people from our Synod in Seminary. In this past year we have had seven people start the process of preparing to go to Seminary. By this Fall we will have seven Seminarians taking classes at ELCA Seminaries, and two preparing to start in the spring or summer. In addition to this, we are blessed by those people who participate in our DYD program (Lay Worship Leader Training) to become authorized to lead Sunday services in congregations where a pastor is not available. We authorized seven new Lay Worship Leaders for our Synod this year. We thank God for them and for their openness to serve their sisters and brothers in our Synod.

I hope you hear all of that as good news. There are many wonderful things going on in the Allegheny Synod.

I told you that there was also a challenge and an opportunity. The challenge is a financial one, which is the same challenge many of our congregations are facing. Our Synod has seen support from congregations decrease between $20,000 and $25,000 a year since 2004. In spite of the valiant efforts of our Synod's Stewardship and Finance teams, we have continued this steady downturn. The first few years our Synod budget was able to absorb the reduction in support. Eventually we had to begin cutting financial support to our partner ministries. Now there is not a lot more to cut. We find ourselves in a place where we need to first plug up the leaks in the boat and it is time for us to work together to try and turn this around.

Now the great and good news is that we can turn this thing around. To shore up and better support our congregations and our Synod we are not talking about major capital investments from each of us. Here is an example. We have 8,100 people in church in the Allegheny Synod on an average Sunday. If each of those people gave an additional dollar a month to support the mission of the Synod, we would produce $97,200 a year for extending the mission and ministry. It is not hard when we all work together.

I also understand that times can seem tough. I know that you are doing the best that you think possible. I also know that sometimes we think that maybe we could give a little more, but what would another $5 or $10 dollars do. The truth is that God takes what we have, and combines it with what our sisters and brothers have, and pretty soon God makes a pretty big difference.

So working with the Stewardship/Mission Interpretation and Finance teams of our Synod, we are going to be intentional about reaching out, working with, and putting forth programs to help congregations. We have a program we are starting this fall with our new leaders to our Synod that is intentional stewardship training. We are also going to be working intentionally to help tell the story of what we do together as a Synod. It is a whole lot easier to support the mission and work of your congregation, our Synod, and the greater church when we know the wonderful things we are doing together.

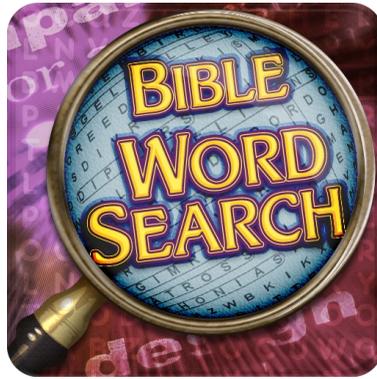

We can do it. We can turn the trend that we are seeing in our Synod and in many of our congregations around. This is not something that we are simply going to fix tomorrow. It is going to take some time, and that time starts now.

I want you to hear that is much to be excited about in our Allegheny Synod. We are doing wonderful ministry. We have a financial challenge in front of us, but we can turn this around. As we do, we will be able to extend the ministries of our Synod and be able to reach out further with the love of Jesus to this world.

Please know that you, the churches, leaders, and individual members of our Allegheny Synod are in my prayers always. Thank you for the many ways you reach out to this world and the ways that you share the love of Jesus Christ with this world.

In Christ,

A LIFE OF STEWARDSHIP

When we think about stewardship we typically think about giving financially to the church. We view stewardship as how we manage our finances and our faithfulness in giving to God's people and to God's church.

What if we begin to think about stewardship in a different way? Not about what we are called to give, but how we are called to be and to live.

In the most basic sense, stewardship is managing what belongs to someone else. Psalm 24 tells us: "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it ..." The concept of stewardship refers to how we manage the life God has given us: How we use our time, what we do with our gifts, talents and possessions, and how we care for ourselves and the physical environment around us.

The following principles help us to better understand the idea of stewardship:

- Caretaking – God owns it, we care for it.
- Responsibility – God trusts us by placing things into our hands.
- Accountability – We strive to ensure that our use of what has been entrusted to us reflects the heart of God.
- Blessed – It's rewarding to use our gifts for a greater purpose. And sometimes we find ourselves entrusted to care for even more.

Stewardship is a privilege calling us to wisely manage all that we have been given. Do our work with excellence. Care for our bodies. Seek opportunities to serve.

Stewardship motivates the follower of Christ to move into action, living in ways that manifest our belief in God. Begin today by reflecting on the principles of stewardship: Caretaking, responsibility, accountability and blessed.

BIBLE QUIZ

- D. Fourfold

Answer: D (See Luke 19:8.)

+Christian Symbol+

Oak

Oak trees are common in Israel, and, according to tradition, Jesus' cross may have been made of oak. In the Old Testament, oaks often symbolize strength and longevity. In Hebrew, the words for oak and providence are related, and some important biblical events take place near, or are marked by, oak trees; for example, "The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre ..." (Genesis 18:1, NRSV).

The beauty of growing old

“How beautifully leaves grow old,” wrote 19th-century essayist John Burroughs. “How full of light and color are their last days.”

Society doesn't think highly of old age. Beauty products tout the supposed virtues of maintaining a youthful appearance. Older adults' wisdom, born of much life experience, is often disparaged, ignored or not sought. But God says this about the righteous, whose lives are rooted in him: “In old age they still produce fruit; they are always green and full of sap, showing that the LORD is upright” (Psalm 92:14-15, NRSV).

The aging leaves of autumn can prompt us to look for beauty in the seniors among us, to notice the light and color that still abound. From all the fruit they still produce — service, prayer, love — may we learn about living faithfully until our own last days.

—Heidi Mann

Change of heart

God has nothing but the best, and he offers it to us, weeds us, sustains us and cares for us through his Son. That's the way our hearts are changed to follow Christ.

—Martin Luther

Reformation cornerstones

Every October, many Protestants celebrate the work of reformers who brought about much-needed change in the Christian church. At the center of their contributions were four teachings:

- Scripture alone: The supremacy of the Bible as the surest guide for faith and life.
- Grace alone: The supremacy of God’s undeserved love. God counts us “right” with him when we accept his free gifts of forgiveness and salvation.
- Faith alone: The supremacy of faith. Only by believing and trusting in God’s promises, and through no works or achievement of our own, do we receive eternal life.
- The priesthood of all believers: Christians are “members of one another” (Ephesians 4:25, NRSV). In God’s eyes, Christians are all on the same level. We each have a ministry to fulfill to one another and to people outside the faith. Martin Luther said we’re “reciprocally and mutually one.”
